God Bless America

Our beloved Land was officially discovered in 1492 by Christopher Columbus, through the patronage of Queen Isabella (“The Catholic”) of Spain. Though the standard of the Catholic Cross was planted in the soil of the New World, once formed as a nation, the United States of America has never been a Catholic country, but a predominantly Protestant one. Nevertheless, the First Amendment to the Constitution, while clearly not establishing an official state religion, provides for and encourages the freedom of religion. Our Founding Fathers believed that faith in God and the exercise of that faith makes for better, well-ordered and moral citizens, and therefore, a better society as a whole. That philosophy helped to make this country great up until the last few decades, as we have seen increasing attacks against religion in general and against the Catholic Church in particular. A small but powerful faction in our nation considers the elimination of God, religion, and objective morals to be positive towards “American evolution;” yet it is only working to the collapse of our society and to the detriment of our immortal souls.

The following was issued to all Catholic men entering into the Armed Forces during WWII. Can you possibly imagine this being issued by the United States Government in our present day? This should be an eye-opener; a powerful reminder to all of us of how drastically times have changed...

ADVICE TO CATHOLIC RECRUITS

A List of the following 12 points has been given to all Catholics going into the Armed Forces. In particular they are meant for soldiers, sailors and marines. In general they are meant for every Catholic. Read them over and think about them. They embody principles which you should follow, starting today.

- 1. Be a good soldier. You can serve God and country best by being true to yourself.*
- 2. Seek out a Catholic chaplain at once: offer your services to him for any assistance he may require.*
- 3. Find your friends at the Communion rail. Some soldiers are daily communicants others go as often as they can. You are sure of good companionship if you spend your time with frequent communicants.*
- 4. Obey commands promptly and with good will. No officer is likely to command you to do anything contrary to good conscience. If any officer should do so, consult your chaplain on the matter.*
- 5. Seek wholesome amusement in recreation hours. The chaplain can advise you where to find it. Don't gamble. Most gamblers are “moochers” and the moocher is an army pest.*
- 6. Carry a medal and a rosary. Keep a prayer book in your kit. Use them. Join the Holy Name Society.*
- 7. Join a discussion group or study club. If there isn't one in your outfit, help the chaplain organize one.*
- 8. Write home frequently; write occasionally to your pastor. If the Chaplain has cards to certify attendance at the Sacraments, send them home.*
- 9. Give a good example of a Catholic gentleman. To men who have never known Catholics before, you represent the Catholic Church. Help others to be such representative Catholics.*
- 10. Don't get married before you leave; don't marry in the Army. A year of separation now may save years of separation later on.*
- 11. Offer your sacrifices every day in union with the sufferings of Our Blessed Lord in His Passion and Death. In this way you supernaturalize your sacrifice, turning it to eternal advantage.*
- 12. Look upon your years of training as a special opportunity God has given you to develop a strong body and a rugged character. Your country needs men of character particularly men whose vision of eternity is clear. A man whose eyes are fixed on God as his last end has no temptation to seek his heaven on earth. Subversive doctrines promise you heaven on earth; such a promise can never be fulfilled. Enter the Army clean-Come home clean. God Bless you.*

Fervently pray, bear witness, and vote for those who believe in truth, justice and the authentic American Way—under God!

Happy Independence Day, and God bless America!

In Christ,
Fr. Greg
