CMA Appeal Update

Our Goal for 2013 is $61,100. a/o 10/14/13 Pledges paid are now $63,464.78, we have reached our goal. The parish will receive 20% back $12,220. All pledge monies received over goal, our parish will receive 80% of those funds. Thank you all who contributed!!!

Bulletin Reflection

Today's Gospel calls all of us, not just the apostles, to "go... and make disciples." If we cannot actually get to the missions, we can answer Jesus' call by giving generously of our prayers and financial resources to support those who can and do.

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who recognize that it is through the open hands of generous stewards, willing to share their many gifts, that God's people are fed and their needs met.

St. Vincent De Paul

Because God is just and concerned for the rights of the downtrodden, persistent prayer always leads to justice. "Prayer must always be an expression of the love that is in us for God, for His world, for His Church and for those who have so much less than we have, namely, His poor." Pray Like a Saint – Matthew Leonard

In this talk, well-known speaker and author Matthew Leonard defines and discusses the three traditional stages of prayer. According to scripture, every one of us is called to "be perfect" and to "pray without ceasing". Prayer is the path to God, and we've been saying prayers all our lives. But are we really praying? Matthew lays out the practical steps to achieve union with God through deep prayer, even in the midst of this busy world.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Knights of Columbus

Last Monday our nation observed 'Columbus Day', commemorating the day in 1492 when (supported by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain) the Genoese sailor Cristoforo Colombo "sailed the ocean blue". On this famous historical expedition Columbus not only planted in the soil of the New World the flag of the House of Aragon, but most especially, the Standard of the Cross. While the primary goal of this daring excursion to find a shorter trade route to India seemed an apparent failure, it was in fact a much greater discovery in the long run.

Without a doubt, there were many profiteers among the Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, French, Dutch, and English explorers who followed after Columbus, venturing forth in search of gold and other treasures. Yet this material goal still did not totally eclipse the vision of those who saw that the harvest was also ripe for the winning of souls to Christ and the Kingdom of Heaven. Many missionary priests and religious brothers also came on these voyages, for both the spiritual needs of the explorers and to bring the Catholic Faith to the native peoples of this vast land. Over the next few centuries, immigrants from numerous European countries came to the colonies in search of religious freedom and the opportunity for a new way of life in a land whose (eventual) Constitution would make no provision for an established state religion, and suppose equality for all people to worship God as they saw fit. However, that did not mean that religious persecution – particularly that of Catholics – would be completely unheard of.

Fast-forward 375+ years. Late-19th century Connecticut was marked by the growing prevalence of fraternal benefit societies, hostility toward Catholic immigrants and dangerous working conditions in factories that left many families fatherless. Recognizing a vital, practical need in his community, Father Michael J. McGivney, the 29-year-old assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Conn., gathered a group of men at his parish on Oct. 2, 1881. He proposed establishing a lay organization, the goal of which would be to prevent Catholic men from entering secret societies whose membership was antithetical to Church teaching, to unite men of Catholic faith and to provide for the families of deceased members.

As a symbol that allegiance to their country did not conflict with allegiance to their faith, the organization's members took as their patron Christopher Columbus — recognized as a Catholic and celebrated as the discoverer of America. Thanks to Father McGivney's persistence, the Knights of Columbus elected officers in February 1882 and officially assumed corporate status on March 29.

In addition to the Order's stated benefits, Catholic men were drawn to the Knights because of its emphasis on serving one's Church, community and family with virtue. Writing in The Columbiad in 1898, a year before he was elected supreme knight, Edward L. Hearn wrote that a Knight should live according to the virtues of loyalty, charity, courtesy and modesty, as well as "self-denial and careful respect for the feelings of others." Fraternity and patriotism were added to the Knights' founding principles of charity and unity in 1885 and 1900, respectively.

Venerable Michael McGivney's foresight of over 130 years ago is still very much in effect today, and perhaps just as necessary for the Catholic community as it was then. The K of C insurance program is one of the largest and most secure in the world. Members participating in the program have the ability to provide for their loved ones in the event of a major calamity or death. The Knights and their work are not just present here in the U.S., Canada, and Mexico, but in a number of countries in South America, Asia, and Europe. The Knights are a bulwark and example of organized Catholic laity taking their gift of faith and fraternity and defending the teaching of the Church and the rights of Catholics against segments of society (and governments) that are becoming increasingly atheistic; hostile towards religion in general and the Catholic Church most specifically.

The Knights of Columbus is a Catholic, fraternal, charitable order open to Catholic men 18 years and older who are in good standing with the Church, believe in Her teachings, are faithful to Holy Mass and the sacraments, and who want to bring the charity of Christ to others, both Catholics and those outside the Church. Included within the Order are the Columbiettes – the women's branch – and the Squires and Squirettes –open respectively to Catholic boys and girls below the age of 18.

In our parish of St. Jude, we have two Councils: J. V. Kavanaugh and the Shrine of St. Jude. J.V.K. Council has been in existence since 1962 and operates out of the council hall building on the corner of Madison and Pawnee in Mastic. The Shrine Council was chartered a couple of years ago when some members of J.V.K. Council wanted to be free of the burden of laboring for and maintaining the council hall – a costly and time-consuming undertaking – in order to have more time for fraternal and charitable pursuits, and to be able to be more available for their parish. They meet here in St. Jude Parish Center.

And so, we now have two councils operating within the same parish: different "flavors," if you will; yet ostensibly, both have the same goal of being focused on serving Jesus Christ and His Holy Church and trying to get to heaven by being shining examples of Catholic gentlemen in their parish and in the community while performing charitable works and enjoying each other's company. I highly recommend membership in the Order to every practicing Catholic man. And yes, I am a Knight and the chaplain of St. Joseph Council #4810 in Greenlawn for over 10 years.

If you are interested in the Knights of Columbus and would like to know more about the Order and the councils here in our parish, please contact Grand Knight John Bivona for the 'J.V. Kavanaugh Council' at (631) 281-3952 & (631) 905-2976. For information on the 'Shrine of St. Jude Council, please see the advertisement on the back page of this bulletin. Vivat Jesus!

Prayer for the Elections

O Virgin of Guadalupe,
Your appearance in Mexico changed the course of history.
Human sacrifice ceased and millions were converted to Jesus Christ. Pray for our nation now. Guide our elections through your gracious intercession. Change hearts and minds to uphold the dignity of all human life. Stem the tide of moral degeneration and defend the sanctity of marriage. Protect our nation from terrorism, war and natural disaster. May goodness triumph over evil. May candidates committed to God's truth be elected and re-elected and may our nation prosper, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

MASCULINITY & FEMININITY DIFFERENCE & GIFT

ALL TEENS & PARENTS ARE INVITED

DOES GENDER MATTER?

Media and popular culture promote gender confusion. As Catholics, we know that God created us male and female for a reason: our bodies, psyches, and biochemistry differ because our vocations differ. Only by rediscovering our identity as either male or female can we discover the gift of our lives and the genuine happiness that comes from living according to either the masculine or the feminine mode of loving.

Presented by Sister Jane Dominic Laurel, O.P., S.T.D. of the Nashville Dominicans.
